Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 1/30/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive with respect to claim 10.

The applicant argues that the prior of record doesn't teach that "metal treatment is provided on the light emitting side of the shield case". The examiner respectfully disagrees because the metal treatment layer 9 from figure 5 has certain thickness. And the side of layer 9 faces the light emitting. Therefore Kenmochi teaches all the limitations of claim 10.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kenmochi (US005664667A).

Kenmochi discloses a keybutton illuminating device for a key button structure comprising:

A case (see figure 5 and column 1 and line 9-14);

A shielding case that is provided with metal surface treatment (see figure 5 and item 9, column 5 and line 20-21);

A key button (see figure 5 and item 3a);

A printed circuit board that is mounted with a light emitting element (see figure 5 and items 1 and 2, column 3 and line 65-column 4 line 1);

Wherein said light emitting element is surround entirely by a rib provided with metal surface treatment, (see figure 5 or 8 and item 8) the rib being disposed underneath said shielding case, wherein the metal treatment is provided on the light emitting element side of the shielding case (see figure 5 and item 9, column 2 and lines 26-38).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-9 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the applicant's remarks, filed on 1/28/04, page 3 and lines 8-16, and page 4, and lines 2-11.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
